venue of these Chapter 11 Cases and the Motion in this district being proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409; and this matter being a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b); and this Court having found that proper and adequate notice of the Motion and the relief requested therein has been provided in accordance with the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules, and that, except as otherwise ordered herein, no other or further notice is necessary; and objections (if any) to the Motion having been withdrawn, resolved or overruled on the merits; and a hearing having been held to consider the relief requested in the Motion and upon the record of the hearing and all of the proceedings had before this Court; and this Court having found and determined that the relief sought in the Motion is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, their creditors and all other parties-in-interest; and that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion establish just cause for the relief granted herein; and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Motion is GRANTED on an interim basis as set forth herein.
2. The Debtors are authorized to continue and/or modify, change, or discontinue the Compensation and Benefits and to honor and pay any and all obligations on account of the Compensation and Benefits, in the Debtors' ordinary course of business, irrespective of whether such obligations arose prepetition or postpetition, to the extent contemplated by the Motion. The Debtors may not pay any portion of the Unpaid Employee Compensation that exceeds the Statutory Cap by more than $40,000 in the aggregate.
3. The Debtors are authorized to pay the Non-Employee Director Compensation on an interim basis.

4. Nothing in this Interim Order authorizes the Debtors to accelerate any payments not otherwise due prior to the date of the Final Hearing (as defined below).

5. The Debtors shall not make any bonus, incentive, or severance payments to the Employees or any “insiders” (as such term is defined in section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code) (“Insiders”) without further order of this Court. Nothing in the Motion or this Interim Order shall constitute a determination by the Court as to whether any individual seeking payment pursuant to this Interim Order is or is not an Insider. Nothing in the Motion or this Interim Order shall be construed as approving any transfer pursuant to section 503(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, and a separate motion will be filed for any requests that are governed by section 503(c) of the Bankruptcy Code; provided that nothing herein shall prejudice the Debtors’ ability to seek approval for such relief pursuant to section 503(c) of the Bankruptcy Code at a later time. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Interim Order authorizes the Debtors to make any payments to the individuals identified in paragraph 2 of the Motion.

6. Pursuant to section 362(d) of the Bankruptcy Code: (a) Employees are authorized to proceed with any claims under the Workers’ Compensation Program in the appropriate judicial or administrative forum and the Debtors are authorized to continue the Workers’ Compensation Program and pay all prepetition amounts relating thereto in the ordinary course of business and (b) the notice requirements pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 4001(d) with respect to clause (a) are waived. The modification of the automatic stay set forth in this paragraph pertains solely to claims under the Workers’ Compensation Program.

7. Nothing herein (a) alters or amends the terms and conditions of the Workers’ Compensation Program; (b) relieves the Debtors of any of their obligations under the Workers’ Compensation Program; (c) precludes or limits, in any way, the rights of any insurer to contest and/or litigate the existence, primacy, and/or scope of available coverage under the Workers' Compensation Program; or (d) creates a direct right of action against any insurers or third-party administrators where such right of action does not already exist under non-bankruptcy law.

8. The Debtors are authorized to forward any unpaid amounts on account of Payroll Deductions or Payroll Taxes to the appropriate third-party recipients or taxing authorities in the ordinary course of business and in accordance with the Debtors' prepetition policies and practices, and are otherwise authorized to satisfy any Payroll Deductions or Payroll Taxes that arise as a result of a taxing authority's claim for a prepetition tax period.

9. The Debtors are authorized to pay any costs and expenses incidental to payment of the Compensation and Benefits obligations, including the Unpaid Payroll Processing Fees, all administrative and processing costs, and necessary payments to outside professionals.

10. The Debtors are authorized to issue postpetition checks, or to effect postpetition fund transfer requests, in replacement of any checks or fund transfer requests that are dishonored as a consequence of these Chapter 11 Cases with respect to prepetition amounts owed in connection with the relief granted herein.

11. In accordance with this Interim Order (or other order of this Court), each of the financial institutions at which the Debtors maintain their accounts relating to the payment of the obligations described in the Motion are authorized to (a) receive, process, honor and pay all checks presented for payment and to honor all fund transfer requests made by the Debtors related thereto, to the extent that sufficient funds are on deposit in those accounts and (b) accept and rely on all representations made by the Debtors with respect to which checks, drafts, wires or automated clearing house transfers should be honored or dishonored in accordance with this or any other order of this Court, whether such checks, drafts, wires, or transfers are dated prior to, on or subsequent to the Petition Date, without any duty to inquire otherwise and without any liability for following the Debtors' instructions.

12. Nothing contained herein is intended or should be construed to create an administrative priority claim on account of the Compensation and Benefits obligations.

13. Nothing herein shall be deemed to authorize the Debtors to cash out unpaid Paid Leave Benefits except upon termination of an Employee, if applicable nonbankruptcy law requires such payment.

14. Nothing in the Motion or this Interim Order, nor as a result of any payment made pursuant to this Interim Order, shall be deemed or construed as an admission as to the validity or priority of any claim against the Debtors, an approval or assumption of any agreement, contract or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code or a waiver of the right of the Debtors or of any claims or causes of action which may exist against any Employees or Third Party Providers, or shall impair the ability of the Debtors to contest or seek relief under any section of the Bankruptcy Code in respect of the validity and amount of any payment made pursuant to this Interim Order.

15. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Motion, this Interim Order, or any findings announced at the hearing, nothing in the Motion, this Interim Order, or announced at the hearing constitutes a finding under the federal securities laws as to whether crypto tokens or transactions involving crypto tokens are securities, and the right of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission to challenge transactions involving crypto tokens on any basis are expressly reserved.

16. The Debtors are authorized to take all actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted in this Interim Order in accordance with the Motion.

17. The Debtors are authorized and empowered to execute and deliver such documents, and to take and perform all actions necessary to implement and effectuate the relief granted in this Interim Order.

18. The requirements set forth in Bankruptcy Rule 6003(b) are satisfied.

19. The requirements set forth in Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) are satisfied.

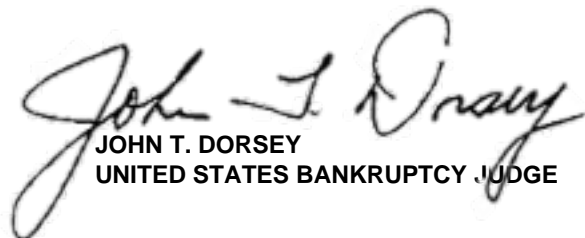

20. This Interim Order is immediately effective and enforceable, notwithstanding the possible applicability of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h) or otherwise.

21. This Court shall retain jurisdiction with respect to any matters, claims, rights or disputes arising from or related to the Motion or the implementation of this Interim Order.

22. The final hearing (the “Final Hearing”) with respect to the relief requested in the Motion shall be held on January 11, 2023 at 10:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time). Any objections or responses to entry of the proposed final order (the “Final Order”) shall be filed on or before 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) on December 14, 2022 and served on the following parties: (a) proposed co-counsel to the Debtors, (i) Sullivan & Cromwell LLP, 125 Broad Street, New York, NY 10004, Attn: Alexa J.
